The Sketchbook Project 2012

KAS is participating in a very special project. It is called The Sketchbook Project 2012. As an ASAP class offered Sunday's after school, the students who signed-up will learn different artistic techniques with Ms. Jamie and have the opportunity to have their book shown throughout the United States of America. The sketchbooks will travel together along with thousands of other participants as a collection. After the tour ends, all sketchbooks will enter into the permanent collection of
